

---

CURRICULUM VITAE

---

POST GRADUATE TRAINING

Otolaryngology- Head and Neck Surgery Residency
University of Wisconsin
July 2002 - June 2006

General Surgery Internship
University of Oklahoma College of Medicine - Tulsa
July 2001 - June 2002

EDUCATION

University of Oklahoma College of Medicine
Oklahoma City, Oklahoma
M.D. awarded June 2001

Brigham Young University
Provo, Utah
B. S. Exercise Physiology awarded April 1997

COMMUNITY SERVICE & INTERESTS

- Varsity Scout Coach & Youth Advisor September 2000 - June 2001
- Boy Scout Troop Advisor, 2003-Current
- Webelos Assistant Scout Master 1996-97
- Eagle Scout awarded 1990
- Volunteer mission in southern Chile (July 1991 to August 1993) for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints

HONORS & AWARDS

Medical School:

- Elected senior class Vice-President, May 2000
- Dean's Student Advisory Committee, 2000-2001
- Honors Research Scholarship Recipient (Spinal Cord Trauma)

Undergraduate:

- Vince Orza Scholarship Recipient 1990
- Dean's Student Advisory Council Nominee 1996

CURRICULUM VITAE

---

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE & PUBLICATIONS

Orgill RD, Pasic TR, Pepler W, Hoffman MD. Radiographic evaluation of aspirated metallic foreign bodies. Annals of Otolaryngology, Rhinology & Laryngology 2005; 114(6):419-424. [Oral Presentation, American Broncho-Esophageal Association annual meeting, Phoenix, AZ; May 2004]

Orgill R, Kremple GA, Medina JE. Acute pain management following laryngectomy. Archives of Otolaryngology - Head and Neck Surgery. 128(7): 829-32, 2002 Jul. [Poster Presentation, American Head and Neck Society annual meeting, Palm Desert, California, May 14-16, 2001.]

Glutamine Synthetase (GS) and Pyruvate Carboxylase (PC) Immunoreactivity in Reactive Astrocytes Following Spinal Cord Injury, R.D. Orgill and K.E. Miller, Honors Research Symposium (Oral Presentation), February 1999.

POSTGRADUATE TEACHING

- Facial Nerve Paralysis and Dysequilibrium, Physician Assistant Lecture, University of Wisconsin, College of Medicine - November 2002, November 2003
- Patient Doctor Society, University of Wisconsin, College of Medicine - Fall 2002, 2004